

School Buzz

A team from Salwan Public School, Rajendra Nagar, led by Sharvil Rai (class XII), Navya Sharma (class XII) and Riddhima Digpaul (class XI) were selected among the top 19 finalists from 8 lakhs submissions in a contest by Ministry of Education. The team, under the mentorship of Dr Shilpa Raghuvanshi Chauhan, PGT Biotechnology creates a robotic gadget, autonomous pairing of socks for the visually impaired. The project earned significant national acclaim and received funding from the Government of India. The device enhances independence for visually impaired individuals and features intricate sensors that audibly identify the colour of placed sock pairs and provide auditory prompts to indicate if the correct sock pair has been identi-

SHARVIL RAI
(TEAM LEADER)

RIDDHIMA
(TEAM MEMBER)

NAVYA SHARMA
(TEAM MEMBER)

Salwan Public School, Rajendra Nagar

fied. This gadget stands as the sole innovation of its kind and addresses a critical need for millions of visually impaired individuals worldwide. The students were highly appreciated by school principal Priyanka Barara.

DPS International School, Saket organised a motivational talk and interaction for the middle school students with Neeraj Yadav, an Indian Paralympic athlete who won gold medals at the

DPS International School, Saket

2018 Asian Games in Jakarta, Indonesia, in the javelin throw and the 2022 Asian Games in Hangzhou, China, both in the discus throw and the javelin throw. Mr Yadav is also an election high commission brand ambassador in Delhi. Mr Yadav's words inspired the students to give their best in the field of sports. Mr Yadav stressed on the necessity of healthy nutrition for a healthy body and mind.

Summer Fields School, Kailash Colony invited special guests from the Indonesian Embassy to perform the 'Dance Drama' based on the Hindu Epic, Ramayana. The guests included Mr Hanafi, minister counsellor for Protocol, Social, and Culture Affairs; Arfiendi Juni Jahja, first secretary for social and culture affairs; Professor I Wayan Dibia, Padma Shree, a renowned Balinese artist, scholar and choreographer along with his 20 troupe members. The event commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp followed by a musical extravaganza by students. Special guests were felicitated by chairman Inder Dev Gupta. A scintillating dance performance in the form of 'Ganesh Vandana' was performed by the students. School principal Shalini Agarwal addressed the gathering and expressed her heartfelt gratitude towards the Indonesian Embassy officials and staff members. After that, the much-awaited dance drama based on Ramayana enthralled all.

Summer Fields School, Kailash Colony

Springdales School, Pusa Road partnered with the South African High Commission to mark and honour Nelson Mandela's contributions towards equality, world peace and the long struggle against Apartheid. Aligning with the Nelson Mandela Foundation theme for this year "Joining Hands, Connecting Communities", students, teachers, Principal, Dr Mala Gupta, deputy high commissioner Cedrick C Crowley and other dignitaries from the High Commission visited the adopted villages of Dasghara and Todapur and made meaningful contributions to community. The outreach program aimed to pay tribute to the 67 years of Mandela's struggle for justice by giving 67 minutes of service through ration distribution, tree plantation, and cleanliness drive.

Springdales School, Pusa Road